

Written Agreement for Parents Providing Formula

On a daily basis, parents with infants in care need to bring ready-to-feed bottles covered and labeled with the child's full name, contents, and date. At the end of the day, formula or milk in an unopened ready-to-feed bottle, or perishable food, will be returned to the parent or discarded.

I, _____ understand that I will be responsible for providing my infant _____ with adequate formula, milk, and food labeled each day.
